CONGRESSMAN DAVID WU SELECTED FOR EDUCATION AND SCIENCE COMMITTEES

Wu also elected to chair the Asian Pacific American Caucus

Washington, DC – Congressman David Wu today announced that he has been again selected to serve on the House Education Committee and the House Science Committee during the 107th Congress. He also served on these two committees during the 106th Congress.

"Education remains my top priority and I look forward to continuing work on the Education and Science Committees," said Congressman Wu. "We need to continue our efforts to reduce class size and encourage more parental involvement in Oregon schools."

Congressman Wu last year co-sponsored efforts to hire more teachers to reduce class size in the early grades and worked with the Oregon high tech community to highlight successful public-private partnerships designed to help students excel in math and science. He also wrote legislation – based on a successful Oregon program – that would help facilitate seniors mentoring in schools.

"During this Congress, I will be working with Oregonians to build on the successes of the last Congress and to find bipartisan ways to involve the community in our schools," said Congressman Wu.

Congressman Wu today was elected to Chair the Asian Pacific American Caucus. He previously served as Vice Chair. There are two officers in the 25-member APA Caucus.
